FOREWORD

IT has been the earnest endeavor of the editors, during the past year, to collect and assemble a true and authentic picture of life at Erskine. That effort is here consummated in the ERSKINE ARROW of 1941. We humbly offer the Student Body this book for their pleasure and approval, with the fervent hope that it may ever be to them a source of joy and pride and fond memories of happy days at Erskine College.

DEDICATION

In recognition of one whose friendship and interest have ever been an incentive to those who were privileged to study under him, for higher attainments in the realm of truth and knowledge, we, the class of 1941, regard it a distinct privilege and pleasure to dedicate this ERSKINE ARROW to our friend and professor,

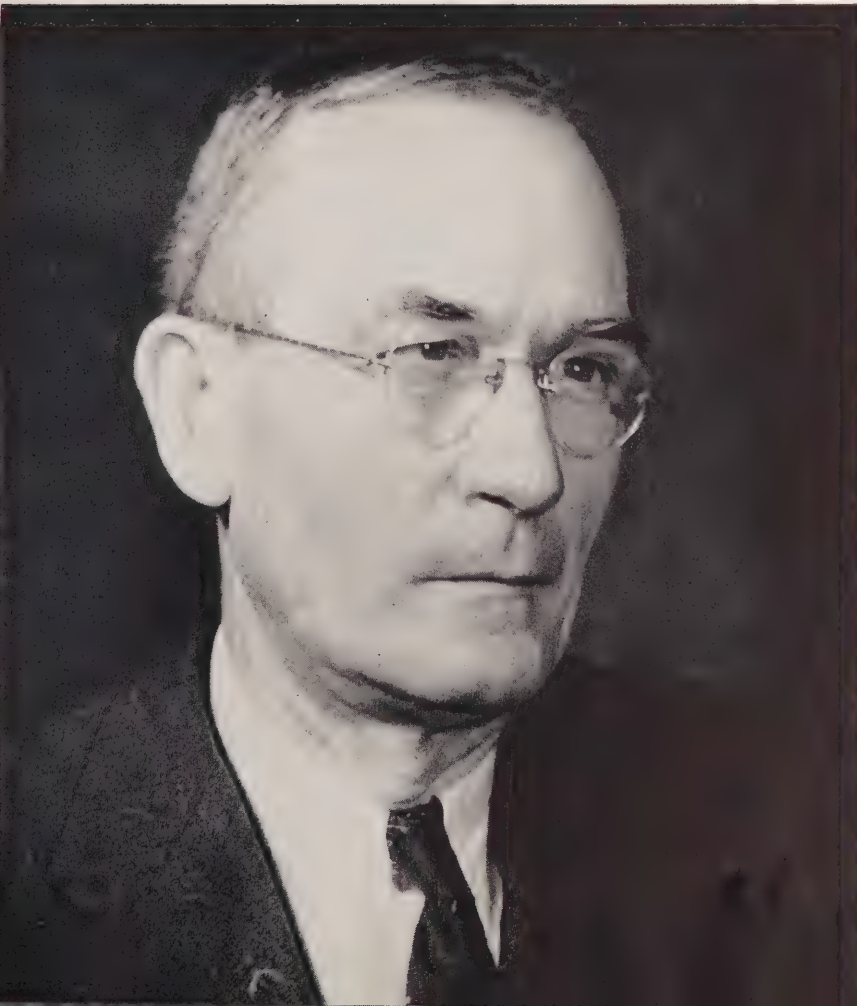

THOMAS J. LESSLIE

IN MEMORIAM

PROFESSOR GALLOWAY was loved, admired and respected. All of his pupils were attached and ever devoted to this instructor whom they titled a "truly Christian Gentleman." His death brought dismay, then grief and sorrow, for his were real friendships. Realizing our loss, we regret it, for he was indeed held in high esteem.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

FOUR YEARS HAVE GONE. Four happy and very important ones for the class of '41. Though it seems but yesterday that we stepped over the threshold of Erskine as Freshmen, we now find that we are ready to venture out into a strange new world with that certain polish and that certain distinction . . . the title of College Graduate.

And now that we are leaving this place forever as students, our hearts are burdened with a quiet sorrow that we only feel at parting from something we love. The years may and will pass, but we know in our deepest inner-most beings that we shall always be loyal and loving children of the old Alma Mater.

There have been many important events that have taken place in our four years at Erskine. Too many to number, in fact. But a few that we might mention in passing would be, the complete change in the social system between the two campuses. Back in the Dark Ages of '37-'38, we could hardly catch a glimpse of one of the fair maidens, much less walk and talk with them. But today it's a different story. We are allowed to associate frequently and freely with one another and the girls find themselves in a great sense liberated from old custom. There have been the erection of the lovely seminary building of which we are all proud and the splendid renovation of many of the old buildings, awakening, as it were, into unbelievable beauty and stateliness. The dormitories also have been greatly modernized and redressed, and even the little town of Due West has felt the urge to dress up, with the result of paving most of her dusty roads.

Twice have we been greatly saddened by the deaths of two of our beloved teachers and friends, Dr. R. L. Robinson and Professor L. C. Galloway. Many of us will long cherish their memories.

And so, as we have said, these have been happy and eventful times for those of '41, and we do acknowledge our grateful thanks to Erskine, and promise her that we will go forth from her portals sons and daughters of whom she will be justly proud.

CARLTON BOEGEL, Class Historian.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

THREE short years ago in the fall of '38, we the class of '42 entered the portals of Erskine College as freshmen. At first everything was new and strange to us, but it was not long before we caught on and entered whole-heartedly into the new life.

To guide us through our first year we elected Hazel Long and Kathleen Whitesides. In the field of sports the more athletic members of our class showed their mettle by turning out a hard fighting football team, while the basketball and baseball teams ranked high in the state race.

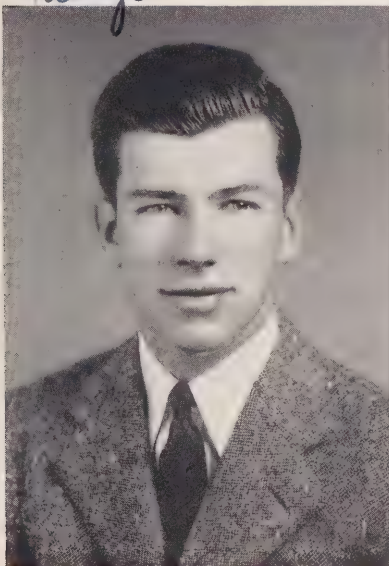

The following September we came together again. Sophomores now! No longer would we have to jump for the upperclassmen. We put the reins in the capable hands of Paul McChesney and Mary Will Boyd. Many members of our class took their places on the football field, the basketball court, and the baseball diamond. The Garnet Circle claimed eight sophomores while six of the eight who represented Erskine in debate were members of our class. Again many of us took active part in the Octets, the Orchestra, Glee Club, the campus publications, and the religious organizations.

This year we started out wisely by electing as our leaders George Moore and Mary Will Boyd. Again many of our class figured prominently on the athletic fields as well as in the other campus organizations. It was necessary to raise money this year for the Junior-Senior banquet. All the members of the class coöperated in this and sponsored buses to football games, put on carnivals and plays, looking forward to the big event.

Three years of our stay at Erskine are behind us, three short, happy, profitable years. We look forward eagerly to our fourth and final year, when we shall be Seniors. Each of us is hoping and planning, determined to make this last year the very best.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

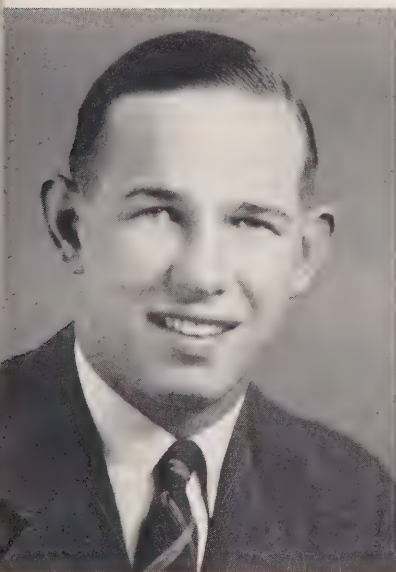

The ending of the college year in May, 1940, brought to a close an important period in the history of the Class of '43. This, our first year at Erskine, was marked with the usual freshman experiences which will remain indelibly in our memory.

Although new to the surroundings of college we were able to make a wise choice in selecting Gene Sloan and Mary Lauderdale as class leaders. In the athletic line our teams showed up well in every encounter despite some of the scores. The Octets, Glee Club, Band, The Mirror and The Golden Quill each enjoyed the benefit of freshman talent.

Upon reassembling September last to commence our studies as Sophomores we found our number diminished but that spirit of interest and zeal still intact, that characterized our class. Again this year the boys gave the reins of leadership to Gene Sloan and the girls chose Mary Kennedy as their new president. The boys responded in large numbers to the call for football, basketball and baseball, and played a major part in those teams' endeavors. Members of our class again added their talents to the musical organizations and to the student publications. Nine of our group were added to the membership of the Garnet Circle, Erskine's scholastic society.

Thus we now look forward to our two remaining years at Erskine but we cannot forget these past years with their enriching experiences. Perhaps we now have caught the drift of college life and will thereby be able to look forward to larger fields. With the determination and eagerness for advancement we can look expectantly for a glorious future.

FRESHMEN CLASS HISTORY

We were "strangers in a strange land" when college began for us. However, we soon learned the ways of college life and the names of all the upperclassmen, the paddle aiding in the introductions. We learned that nothing must be spared to make the comfort of upperclassmen complete. The girls also learned that they were not exempt from all initiation.

The first few weeks held many interesting experiences for us. Among these may be mentioned "Rat Night," "The Wild Man" and numerous rat meetings. Following these we began to feel that we were full-fledged members of the student body.

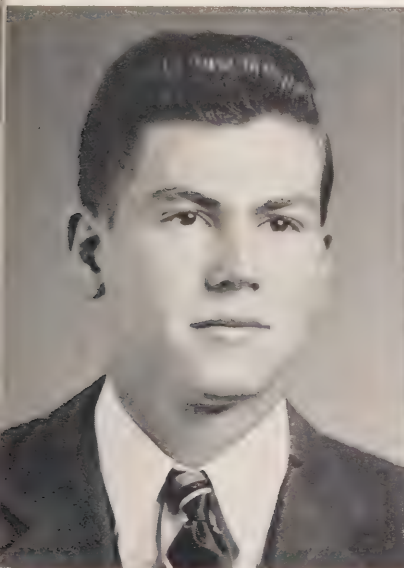

Members of our class were very active in all student activities, several were on the staffs of The Golden Quill and The Erskine Mirror. We also took part in the Glee Club, Band and other student organizations. Our class stood high along academic lines and did their part to maintain the scholastic record of the school.

In athletics we produced good football, basketball and baseball teams. Although they were not championship teams, they had the fighting spirit for which Erskine is known.

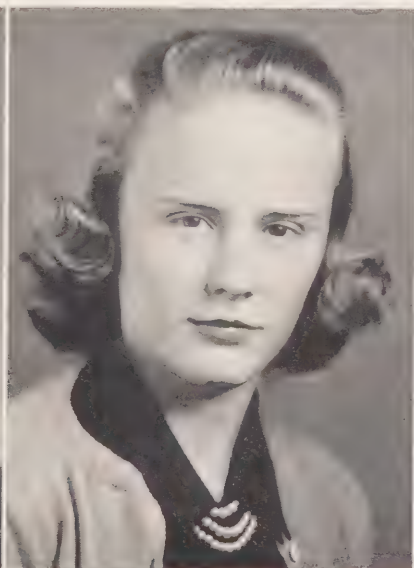

In all activities which we entered, we were ably led by our presidents, Frances Jayne McGee and Lex Patrick. Their leadership counted for much in our freshman class, of which we are proud.

As we look back over our first year at Erskine College, we find that we have come to love and cherish the things for which she stands. We are determined to make the class of '44 one of which Erskine will be truly proud.

The true value of the ERSKINE ARROW can never be truly estimated. Capturing every phase and activity of college life, by means of pictures, no other publication on the campus leaves a more graphic and vivid record than does the Yearbook.

If, at this time and in later years, this book is looked back on with pleasure, and a host of warm memories are revived, then the efforts of the staff will not have gone for naught.

The ARROW is published by the Senior Class and edited by a staff elected from that group.

THE ERSKINE MIRROR

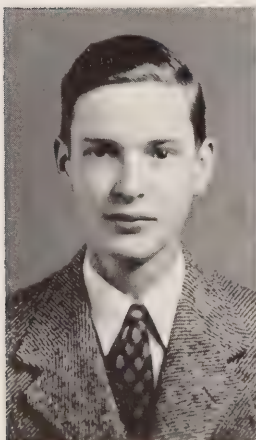

To remember the past, to anticipate the future, and, above all, to reflect the present life at Erskine College is the privileged duty of the Erskine Mirror, the campus weekly newspaper.

The staff is composed of students interested in journalism. These students have endeavored to catch the hopes, the joys, the aspirations, and the disappointments of college experience.

If the print that was once alive is now dead, the spirit in which it was written still survives. As the spirit of life is made stronger by a tangible expression of that spirit, it is hoped that the spirit of the college was made stronger by the issues of the Mirror.

The Erskine College Forensic Council is an organization which sponsors and promotes improvement in public speaking. The Council, composed chiefly of debaters, is one of the most active organizations in the extra-curricular field. Its success is measured by its participation and each year the Council turns in a most enviable record.

With instruction in parliamentary law, methods, and oratory by the debate coach, J. M. Lesesne, a distinct improvement is noted in the quality of each speaker's performance.

Sending entrants to both the Dixie Tournament and the Strawberry Leaf Festival, held at Winthrop each year, Erskine is annually and richly rewarded for her efforts. Other tournaments held over the state are usually attended also, with gratifying results.

This year several trips have been planned down into Florida and up into Virginia and Washington where a good many schools will be met in competition.

Two Varsity and one Freshman team compose the active debaters squad and standard and clash debates along with forums are featured throughout the year.

The '41 season offers much to the victor and Erskine is well assured that the mid-winter results will place her well up near the top of the list.

Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church

DR. J. P. PRESSLY

The life of the College is greatly intertwined with that of the Church. Since Erskine was originally founded by the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, she was, and still is, vitally connected with and influenced by the local church.

Under the pastorate of Dr. J. P. Pressly, the students are guided in paths of spiritual truths and enlightenment. Countless boys and girls have profited from the life of this godly man.

The choir, composed of students and directed by Mr. D. S. Edwards, plays an important part in the regular weekly services. Beside serving the local church, the choir also aids in the musical worship of neighboring congregations.

Founded in fellowship, created in a coöperative tendency for the literary, the Philomathean Literary Society offers to its members a constant opportunity to improve. Belief that an emphasis on forensics, literature, and the arts promulgates in a man a higher level of appreciation for life's living, it endeavors to promote in a way currently attractive, a cultivated interest for the literary.

At the weekly Tuesday night meetings, programs presenting the membership in active participation are given. The conclaves concur in Philomathean Hall.

The organization of the society is constructed according to parliamentary precedent. Seniors are eligible for presidency; the vice-president, secretary and treasurer may be any member of the society. Proceedings are according to parliamentary law and serve as reliable training in the conduct of assemblies of any kind.

To the general public, the Philomatheans customarily offer an open program especially prepared to entertain prospective members and friends.

THE EUPHEMIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

"Live for Your Country and Your God."

SAMUEL STEVENSON

WILLIAM JOHNSON, JR.

President

ROBERT STEVENSON

President

The Euphemian Literary Society founded more than a century ago in 1839, is the oldest organization on the campus. A weekly meeting is held with the purpose of promoting Christian ideals and literary achievement for young men. Usually these meetings are held on Tuesday night and last from thirty to sixty minutes.

Each week a program is planned and given by the members of the society. The members choose their own topics and the speeches last from three to five minutes each. Often guest speakers are invited in to address the society. Frequently contests are conducted among the members to increase attendance.

Every six weeks new officers are elected to lead the society. From the senior class the president is elected; a vice-president from the junior class; and a secretary and treasurer from the sophomore class. Various committees are appointed that are needed in running the society. Once a year an open meeting is held to urge freshmen to join the society. It has been the custom of the society to play the Philomathean Society in basketball and baseball and to hold a commencement debate at the end of the year.

The Euphemian Literary Society continues to progress in its ideals and works and its members are still striving to live by their motto "Live For Your Country and Your God."

The Athenians are the only literary society for women on our campus, being organized in the spring of 1936 by two of the students at that time. The purpose of the society was, and is, to discover and develop ability in public speaking and debating, to encourage original composition, and to promote interest in good composition. A constitution was drawn up and the work of the society went forward speedily.

At the beginning there were twenty members in the society and now there are over fifty, a fact which shows its growth. Eligible for membership are all young women of the college who desire to participate in the activities of the society as set forth in the purpose. Every member must be making at least a passing grade in all her subjects. As was the first arrangement, the society meets twice per month either in the Bonner Hall or in the Robinson Hall Sun Parlor.

The officers of the Athenian Literary Society consist of a president, a vice-president, a secretary, and a chaplain, all of whom are elected for one year. All of these officers serve in the regular capacities directing the government of the society.

The Young Men's Christian Association has the distinction and privilege of being the only campus organization which includes the entire student body in its membership. This non-denominational group attempts to reflect in the lives of its members the principles of Jesus Christ, and in its Sabbath vesper services it tries to give programs that will be inspiring and convincing to a young man who seeks the Christian way of life.

The "Y" conducts a devotional period at the evening meal and group prayer services each Thursday evening in the dormitories.

In February, Dr. W. W. Orr of Des Moines, Iowa, conducted the annual student revival sponsored by the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A.

The work of the evangelistic committee brings to the surrounding communities the Christian atmosphere characteristic of Y. M. C. A. work.

This year the responsibility of the programs, attendance, fellowship, publicity and mission work has been assumed by various committees.

The advisers for the year have been Mr. J. L. Hunter, Dr. J. Alvin Orr, Dr. G. G. Parkinson, and Mr. D. G. Phillips.

Y. W. C. A.

The Young Women's Christian Association is the center of religious emphasis on the women's campus. This organization, with religious training and character development as its chief aim, includes the membership of every girl.

The Y. W. C. A. services are held on Sabbath evenings with the students in charge of the programs on both useful and interesting subjects. At ten o'clock each evening short vesper services are held in both dormitories.

A special student revival is conducted by a prominent minister in the spring of each year. This week's service is made possible by the coöperation of the Y. M. C. A.

Scholarship and intellectual achievement are emphasized on the Erskine campus particularly by this society. Membership is awarded to those twenty-one undergraduate students who make the highest grades in the student body. This makes membership in itself an accomplishment. The Circle is selected by a consensus of faculty records and opinions.

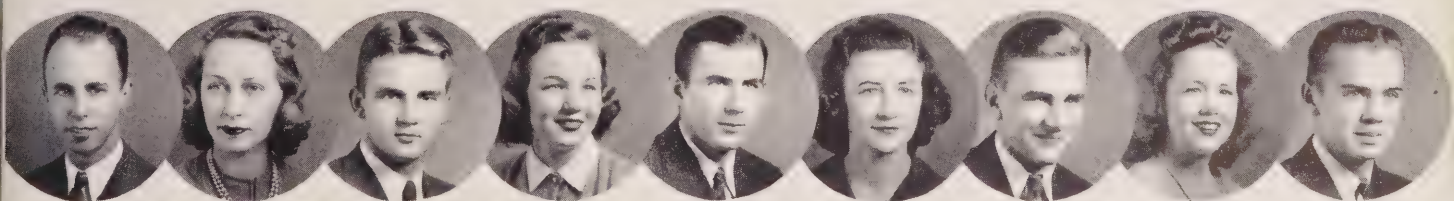

Being an honorary organization, its functional activities are limited. Rather are its objectives attained through the individual work of the members.

Professor J. N. Bonner acts as the faculty sponsor and in an advisory capacity to the Circle.

ERSKINE PLAYERS

The students of the Play Production class and others who are interested in dramatic work make up the Players group. Under the expert and capable supervision of Miss Elizabeth Nickles, the club seeks to promote a keener interest in the art of play production and stagecrafts, taking in scenery and costume designing.

During the course of the school year the Erskine Players present several three act plays and a series of one act plays. Usually these are either comedies or the familiar mystery-comedies. Particularly interesting and extremely humorous was the Play "Tish" by Alice Chadwick which was presented this past November. Miss Nickles and the Players also coöperate in presenting the Senior Class play that takes place each commencement.

THE LIFE SERVICE GROUP

WILLIAM McALILEY, Leader

WINNIE MORRISON, Assistant

The Life Service Group is composed of those students who desire to base their lives on Christian service in whatever field they enter. Meetings every two weeks reflect the Christian spirit and fellowship that the group offers. Topics of interest are discussed by those attending. Not only does the group attempt to increase Christian thought and fellowship on the campus, but through its leaders and faculty adviser, Dr. H. J. Ralston, it willingly lends its aid to Missions, Church, and Chapel programs.

WHO'S WHO

Each year the College selects a representative group of students whose opinions, pro and con, as well as their biographies, are written up in the book Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. The faculty and President of the college select the students on the following requirements: Character, Scholarship, Leadership, in extra-curricular activities, and Potentialities of future usefulness to business and society.

The purpose of Who's Who is to serve: as an incentive for students to get the most out of their college career; as a means of compensation to students for what they have already done; as a standard of measurement for students comparable to such agencies as Phi Beta Kappa and the Rhodes Scholarship Award.

The Orchestral Department of Erskine is represented in performance off campus by the Little Symphony Orchestra. The eighteen members of the organization are selected from the Symphony Orchestra on their ability to perform.

The Orchestra was under the baton of Prof. Thomas Hibbard, who displayed his unusual ability as a conductor, and the success of the group was due to his untiring efforts.

In addition to a tour of the southern states the Orchestra presented a spring concert at Erskine, including the works of such masters as Gluck, Strauss and Bach.

The Erskine College Glee Club is a worthy instrument of musical enrichment among the students, the faculty and the people of Due West. It not only fosters a deep and lasting appreciation of the highest type of music but it offers the members of the organization an opportunity to participate in presenting many of the master works of choral music. Beside aiding when music is needed on various occasions, the Glee Club usually offers two big programs a year, at Christmas and in the Spring.

The Band, with Prof. Thomas Hibbard as leader, has added much to the college pep and spirit by its presence at pep meetings, football games, and other occasions where peppy band music was needed. Formation drill characterized the band at the half intermission period of football games, and its performances were indeed creditable.

This group of student musicians has proven its fidelity to Erskine and is truly one that the institution can be justly proud to claim as one of her organizations.

MUSIC LOVERS' CLUB

Through the Music Lovers Club every girl at Erskine is given the opportunity to become more familiar with all types of music. This club is not only for music students but for any girl who wishes to be a member. The chief aim of the club is to promote understanding and appreciation of music.

The meetings are held monthly and consist of a program of various types of music in which the talented members take part. Miss Devane, faculty adviser, has been a constantly broadening influence to the club.

Co-Captains

Managers

Coach Todd had bright hopes with a heavier line and a faster backfield. The coach and the entire team worked hard for two weeks before returning to Due West. For ten days Coach Todd worked continuously to mold the men in shape and especially to select his starting line-up for the opening game near at hand.

Others whose services were of extreme importance were, in the backfield, Charlie Todd, Freddie Walters, Sam Bundrick, James Mills, John Hunter, William Botts, O. T. Munnerlyn. Those outstanding as linemen were, "Hoss" Nesbit, "Flash" Williams, Earl Walters, Eric Plampin, Pelham Horton, Jim Faulkenberry, "Rufus" Harris, "Hound" Long, Warren Ballenger, "Footsie" Galloway, Dick League, and Jack Alexander. Three members of the squad were honorable mention for All-State, namely, John Simonton, Earl Walters, and Buck Stevenson.

T-Bone Davis and Neil Walker, efficient and capable managers, deserve much credit.

On September twentieth the Fleet was put to its first test which resulted in a 25 to 0 victory over South Georgia State Teachers. There was a fine display of team work including keen passing attack; running was outstanding and good blocking was noticeable.

The powerful Furman Hurricanes won their initial game over the Fleet by a score of 40 to 0.

The crippled Fleet went down in defeat to the Citadel Cadets 45 to 0.

Wofford downed the Seceders in Spartanburg 27 to 0.

Mercer took advantage of an early lead to win over the stubborn Flying Fleet 45 to 0.

P. C. by two freak pass plays defeated the superior Fleetmen 14 to 7 in Rock Hill.

The Erskine squad was trounced by Collangelo and his Newberry Indians 32 to 0.

The season closed with a defeat from Oglethorpe 27 to 0 in Anderson.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Immediately after the opening of College, the freshman footballers were ordered on the gridiron by Coach Dode Phillips. The men, who numbered thirty some odd, began at once with strenuous workouts, working consistently for two weeks or more before Coach Phillips selected his ablest men for each position. After another two weeks of learning and exercising plays the Baby Fleet was ready to begin the season.

The opening game was in Due West, when the freshmen encountered the strong Blue Ridge Junior College eleven. This was a hard-fought contest with neither team able to score more than one touchdown. The result was a 7-7 tie.

The Fleet then invaded North Carolina only to be defeated by the strong aggregation from Mars Hill. The freshmen went down to the tune of 45-0.

The Fleet next journeyed to Charleston and the Citadel Pups. The Citadel having one of the strongest freshman teams in many years defeated the Erskine squad 69-0.

The Fleet went down in defeat in a thrilling and exciting game with the Newberry eleven. The score was 13-6.

The Baby Fleetmen closed the season with the Wofford Terriers in Due West. This was also a close scrap, with Coach Phillips changing his team's formation and thus presenting a smooth and well trained aggregation. The Terriers won by a score of 18-6.

Coach Phillips deserves much credit for his splendid work toward building such a team as was seen throughout the season. Charlie Cofer also helped considerably in assisting Mr. Phillips. Marriot Phifer also did a good job as manager.

BASKETBALL

The basketball season began immediately upon the close of the football season. Coach Todd started getting his men in shape placing special emphasis upon shooting practice. There were three important positions left vacant by the previous squad. Due to lack of height Coach Todd was required to mold his boys into a fast and scrappy team that was superior in floor-work.

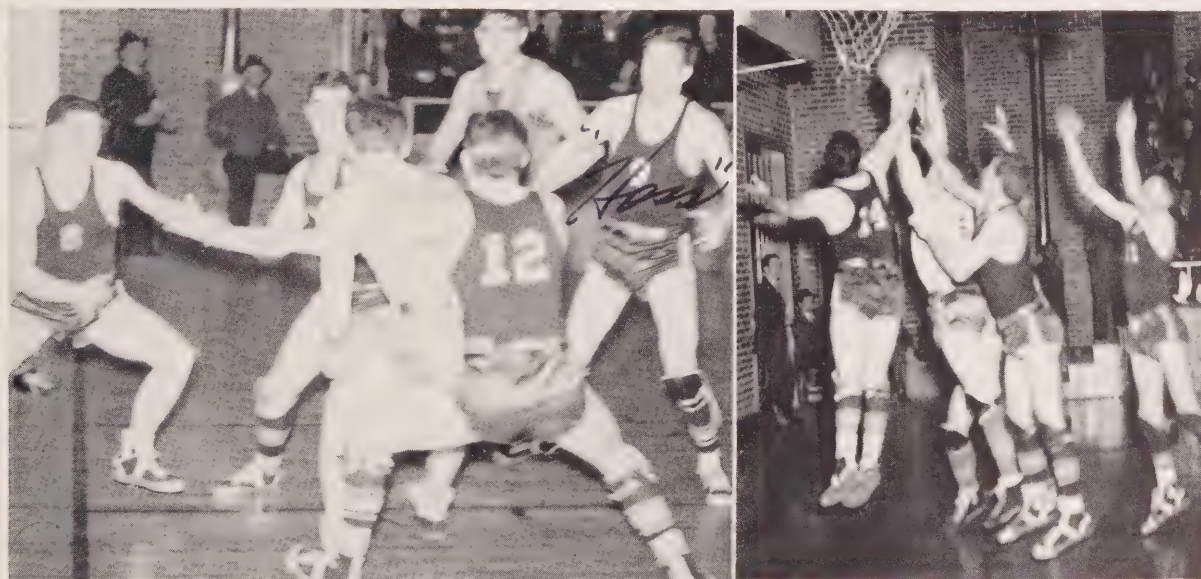

Practice was officially opened the latter weeks of November. The first practice game was on December 6. The team invaded Georgia to play a double header at Tocoa. This was the first test for the Fleetman and the results were fifty-fifty. The following week the Seceders went to Whitmire in another practice tilt. The Fleet dropped this game by a score of 35-40.

The regular schedule games began the following week. The Carolina Gamecocks defeated the Erskine five in Due West by a score of 45 to 21. In a return game, the Flying Fleet, out to retain its traditional basketball ability, tackled the Gamecocks in the capital city. This was certainly a spectacular affair but the Gamecocks were victorious in the final moments of the game, rolling up a score of 27-21.

The Christmas vacation was then underway so the basketball activities ceased until December 30. There were several more practice games scheduled, the first being with the Winnsboro Royal Cords. The Cords won by a one-point margin. The next two games were played with the Marines, the Seceders dropping both games with only a few baskets. The Marines, from Parris Island, were defeated by a score of 43-25. The Fleetmen, now ready to begin the long campaign, stopped the College of Charleston 31 to 29. Hazel Long racked up most of the points in this game. Erskine then met Newberry in Due West; the results were 33-25 in favor of the Indians. Charlie Williams led the scoring. The Mercer Bears invaded Due West and won from the Fleet 47-37 with Charlie Todd doing the chief tallying. The next game was with Wofford, on the home court, losing 38-30. Each individual shared in the scoring. Those showing excellent floor-work were Brownlee, Jones and Parkinson. The boys again lost to Wofford in Spartanburg by a score of 45-25. The College of Charleston was the guest of the Flying Fleet on February 4. They were defeated by the Fleetmen 31-27. Nesbit and Todd performed well for the home team. The next game was with P. C. in Clinton, score 48 to 31, P. C.'s favor. South Georgia Teachers won a close and hard-fought tilt by a slight margin of 33-32. Erskine went to Newberry to defeat the Indians 38-26. Overby's sharp shooting helped greatly to stop the Newberry quintet. The final schedule game was played in Due West against P. C. The results were 41-33 against the Fleetmen.

The season closed with a game in Greenwood against Newberry. This game was played for the benefit of the fight against Infantile Paralysis. The final score was 36-34 in favor of Newberry.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

Twenty freshmen, eager to go, reported for practice after Christmas. Under the able guidance of Coach Sam Bundrick, a smooth and fast clicking team was selected. Unlike many freshman teams this group had much experience and talent.

The Baby Fleet opened their season with a victory over the College of Charleston. The little Seceders, aided by confidence, showed up well, defeating the freshmen from Newberry in that contest. The results were 27 to 18. The Baby Fleet continued their winning streak by stopping the Wofford Pups in consecutive weeks.

After a brief pause for examinations, the Baby Fleet carried on their victorious campaign claiming a win from the P. C. freshmen 35 to 22. They suffered their first defeat by a score of 32 to 26 from Newberry. The following game was also a defeat; a close game with P. C. to the tune of 27 to 26.

Coach Bundrick and Manager Bryson Stinson deserve much praise for a fine frosh outfit.

BASEBALL

With the diamond prospects on the darker side, Coach Jakie Todd put forth a fine team. The team under Todd was second best in the state, according to the records. With several outstanding veterans and the help of a few rookies the Fleet was constantly "on the march."

John Hyatt Edwards, first baseman, was probably the greatest fielding and hitting asset to the squad, although Woodrow Dixon was of great value as shortstop. Bill Parkinson and Joe Cotten were worthy vets in the outer garden. Nesbit, Jones, Moore and T. Stevenson assisted in the outfield also. Walters, Hedrick, Overby and B. Stevenson completed the infield. "Kid" Patterson, Bob Falls, Dick Robertson and Billy Haddon formed the pitching staff. Patterson as the No. 1 twirler came through in excellent style. The other pitchers were constantly called on to do relief work and they helped in a particularly fine way when the situation was critical.

Erskine opened the season with Davidson and dropped the game by a score of 10-6. The Fleet won the next game from P. C. to the tune of 10-5. Due to many errors and unfavorable weather conditions the Seceders lost to the invading University of Ohio 12-3. The Erskine nine invaded Spartanburg to defeat Wofford 10-4. The Clemson Tigers defeated the Flying Fleet 5-2. The next game was a thriller in which the Fleet went down to Newberry by a score of 3-2. Erskine was victorious over Furman by a score of 7-6. The Carolina Gamecocks defeated Erskine 7-3. We lost to Wofford in a second game 6-5. The Seceders won a close game from the Blue Stockings of Clinton by a score of 2-0. The men from Due West stopped the Newberry nine by a slim margin of 7-6. With effective pitching and timely hitting we won over the State Champions, Clemson, by a score of 4-3. Carolina defeated Erskine in Due West 13-4. The curtains were then drawn on the season by winning from Furman in a second game and in two wins from The Citadel.

This concluded a very successful season with Erskine standing high up in the State race. Coach Todd developed a team which was always seeking the victory—characterized by hard work and great scrapping ability. The Sophomores came through in excellent form, furnishing the team with many experienced players. The prospects for the coming year should be exceptionally bright and hopeful, losing only five from the squad due to graduation.

TENNIS

This year Erskine's interest in Tennis reached a new high. A successful year seems assured and the results evidenced in early spring practice were most satisfactory. A strenuous training period during the Fall months is partly accountable for the improvement, in addition to the fact that only two of last year's squad were lost through graduation.

Under the expert supervision of Mr. William Luffler, a nationally known professional, the squad is beginning to shape up into a team that should prove most formidable by the middle of the season. Enlightenment on the fine points of the game coupled with a new complete knowledge of just how to play it are producing a marked improvement in each player's game.

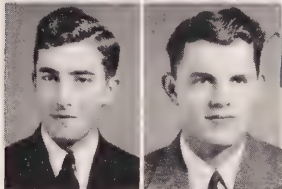

With anticipation high for a successful season (and now wearing new and good looking uniforms), the team aspires much toward the coming Spring. Games with all the state schools and numerous others have been scheduled for the '41 season and with this enlarged program we look forward to great things from the Varsity Tennis Squad.

THE GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Under the capable supervision of Miss Marjorie Leonard, Director of Physical Education for Women, the Girl's Athletic Association is a very vital and prominent organization. The Association has a two-fold aim in seeking to satisfy the physical needs of the students: first, to provide an adequate program of athletic activities; second, to promote a spirit of competition that is instigated rather by real enjoyment of sports than by desire for awards.

To carry out this program, a Board is chosen, consisting of the president, vice-president, and secretary and treasurer, and a student manager for each sport. This year Clara McDill, Lillian Pennell, and Sarah Hunter served as president, vice-president, and secretary and treasurer, respectively. "Taddy" early distinguished herself as an athlete of no small note, having already earned her Block "E" before her junior year. Lillian and Sarah, too, justly deserve their executive offices.

Under the direction of this board, tournaments are held during the year in individual and team sports, including volley ball, basketball, softball, badminton, shuffleboard, ping-pong, tennis and archery. These friendly contests do much in promoting a spirit of comradeship and good sportsmanship.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Each year the Athletic Association endeavors to promote a program of athletics that will meet the needs of all students, and will stimulate interest in activities that are suited to all capacities. Realizing that team work develops a quality that individual competition does not, girls are encouraged to go out for the teams which engage in intramural tournaments in the various sports. These tournaments serve as an incentive for hard work and much practice throughout the entire season of the sports and are looked forward to with great anticipation.

1. PING-PONG CHAMPIONS
3. BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

2. SOFTBALL CHAMPIONS
4. TENNIS

When the weather prevents participation in outdoor sports, the girls use the Recreation Room, provided and equipped by the Y. W. C. A. Ping-Pong tables, and many other table games provide an outlet for the instinct of self-enjoyment.

In individual competition each girl strives to discover every ability granted her and to cultivate these talents to as high a degree of perfection as possible. Practice, together with grit and determination, plus "College Spirit" goes far in winning important contests,

GIRLS' BLOCK "E" CLUB

Although the spirit which prevails throughout the sports season is "play for play's sake," most girls desire to win, at some time in their college careers, a Block "E" which is an insignia of outstanding athletic ability. By practicing for and participating in any of the tournaments held throughout the year, a girl may amass points. To be able to wear her letter, a student must earn 1,000 points. A star is awarded upon the winning of an additional 1,000 points. All girls who have won their Block "E's" belong to an honorary organization which is called the Block "E" Club.

Membership in this organization, which holds an annual banquet, is a high honor. Public presentation of Block "E's" to students becoming members attests this fact.

May Day

The first Saturday in May, the Physical Education classes present a May Day program, in honor of the senior class. A queen is chosen by the students, from the senior class, on the basis of beauty and the ability to represent Erskine in true spirit. After the crowning of the Queen, dances and tumbling acts are presented to amuse her and the court which is composed of the maid of honor and eight students voted to this honor by the student body.

LOTS OF FUN at ERSKINE

illegible*

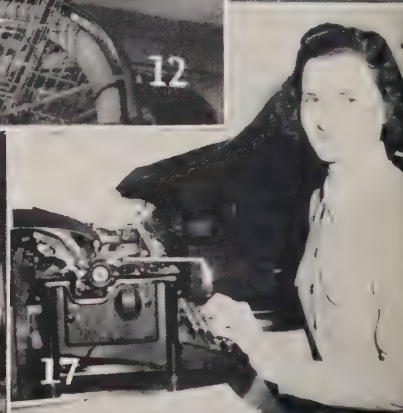

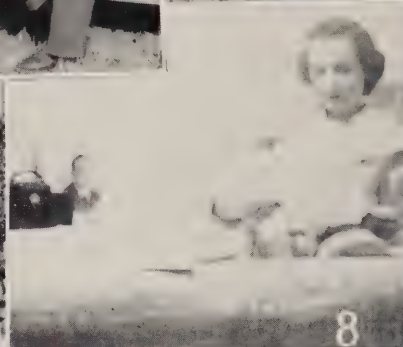

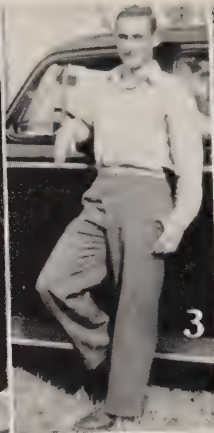

People always take pictures on happy, joyous occasions. One seldom, if ever, sees a kodak where tears or grief are present. And so the Snapshot Section presents the many little happy times we've all had here at ERSKINE during the past year.

These pages are the most valuable part of the entire Annual because they preserve for us the things, the places, and the people which afforded us those gloriously perfect moments that we will always want to store away in our hearts and cherish as our fondest memories. Herein is presented 'Lots of Fun at ERSKINE'.

And Finally....

The last picture is taken, the last write-up is typed and handed in . . . the book is finished. The printers have taken charge. The editors can now sit back, take their ease for a while, and hope that the fruit of their year's work will prove favorable to everyone concerned. Not everyone will be pleased or yet satisfied. There will no doubt be some criticism, but nothing of note or good ever escaped it. So if we are criticized we will know that our publication has been worthy of attention.

The Editor-in-Chief particularly wishes to extend a sincere thank-you to Henry Quinn and Winnie Morrison, the pictorial editors, for their constant enthusiasm and interest and for their fine piece of work in pictorial recording.

Also to Jean Patrick, Baxter Jones and the business staff must be given much credit for their interest and good work, as well as to each and every other member of the staff who did his part in compiling the ARROW.

Last but not least, the staff wishes to thank Mr. Harrie Keck of the Observer Printing House and Mr. M. F. Dunbar of the Dunbar Studios, for the interest and splendid coöperation that they gave us through the past year.

Jim: I owe you a lot for your advice on English games and it amounts to a lot. You a swell inn mate to live with.
I hope you will make a successful politician some and maybe I might vote for you. Game all in all you are a kind hearted soul to know. Very reasonable person
I must say. Yours very sincerely:
Harold Edwin "mule" Ellis.

James: It's been swell knowing you this year. I hope to see you next year. I'll always remember the time we bummed to Charleston on 75¢. It was swell. Remember the Batting and the Atlantic ocean, also "Linging Sam". Thanks for those swell times & those others were had on the good old first floor. Bob, the "Hill"

Judge, Don't work too hard this summer.
But I know that a smart, industrious fellow like you don't mind getting up at 4:30 o'clock. Don't ever forget those good times we've had together, and those hikes into the fields to enjoy the works of mother nature. Judge, I wish you the very best of luck in everything.
